Sanctioning is a requirement of the International Baseball Federation ("IBAF"), and as a member, the Australian Baseball Federation ("ABF") is obliged to uphold the same protocol within Australia. For national and international events and/or tours to be sanctioned by the ABF they must meet certain criteria as outlined on the ABF website: www.baseball.com.au

Sanctioning is designed to protect the interests of associations, clubs, programs, activities, players and volunteer members of the Australian Baseball Federation, and to maintain good relations with other national federations.

The use of the term "Australia" or "ABF" in any form to represent a team sanctioned by the ABF (other than an Australian National Team as selected by the ABF) is strictly prohibited.

This sanction does not authorise the use of national team jerseys that bear the name "Australia" (or any clothing that may be interpreted or construed as national team attire) in the field of international play.

The ABF (which for the purpose of this indemnity clause shall severally and jointly mean and include: the Federation, its Directors, employees, agents and contractors) shall not be deemed responsible or liable whether in contract or under any statute, for any injury, illness, loss or damage or other mishap to the participants or organisers or their property, sustained in or arising out of, or in any way directly or indirectly connected with the participation of the tour sanctioned.
